The title of this valuable publication is the only needed description. It should be in every library and in the hands of all students of Constitutional history.

THE TREZEVANT FAMILY IN THE UNITED STATES, from the arrival of Daniel Trezevant, Huguenot, at Charles Town, South Carolina, in 1685, to the present date. By John Timothie Trezevant, Columbia, S. C. The State Company 1914, pp. 122.

This is a very careful and complete account of one of the most distinguished of the old Huguenot families of South Carolina. Like other American families it has now spread to other states, and has been well-known in Virginia. John Trezevant (1758-1816) removed to Virginia, and served as a surgeon in the Virginia Continental Line. Lewis Cruger Trezevant, a nephew of John also came to Virginia; so the family has been largely represented here. The book is an admirable example of genealogical work.

THE PRESTON AND VIRGINIA PAPERS OF THE DRAPER COLLECTION OF MANUSCRIPTS. Publications of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. Calendar Series, Vol. I., Madison Wis., 1915, pp. 357.

That the Wisconsin Historical Society is to publish a Calendar of the Draper Manuscripts is good news to all students of American history. Much most valuable material from this source has already been published by the Society or by individual writers; but a full calendar has always been greatly desired. In making a beginning the editors have conformed to the original arrangement of the manuscripts and printed first the Preston and the "Virginia" papers. The Prestons and their relations and friends the Pattons, Buchanans and other well-known Western Virginia people bore a leading part in the settlement and defence of the frontier of the Colony of Virginia. The 146 pages of the calendar containing these papers include much of great historical value. The Virginia Manuscripts (pages 147-309) cover dates from 1742 to 1901, and these, also, relate chiefly to events or people in the western portion of Virginia. There is, however, a great deal of matter relating to Western Pa., Kings Mountain, &c. The volume is indispensable to to anyone interested in early frontier history. It has an admirable index.

GEORGE WASHINGTON, FARMER. Being An Account of His Home Life and Agricultural Activities. By Paul Leland Haworth. Author of The Path of Glory, Reconstruction and Union, America in Ferment, &c. With Many Illustrations, Fac-Similes of Private Papers and a Map of Washington's Estate Drawn by Himself. Indianapolis, The Botts-Merrill Company, Publishers [1915], pp. 336.

This book is a curious mixture of knowledge and ignorance. When the author is writing on the subjects indicated in his title (and this, of
